Get 125 Health

There is an easy (and quite illicit) way to up your health rating. Carjack a fairly decent ride and cruise into the Red Light District. Pull up next to one of the hookers and stop. She'll talk to you and if she likes your ride, she'll get inside. The moment she gets in, your money will gradually decrease. Drive her to a deserted alley and let the car sit. Eventually, the car will begin to rock, first slowly, then faster. Your health will increase as the vehicle shakes. Who knows what's going on inside? In the end, your health will grow to 125, and will last until the next time you croak.

Cram the Garage

In the garage on the second city, it says you can only park 2 cars in the garage by where you save. But you can trick it into letting you park six small ones.

When try to put in the third car, the hideout's garage won't open. Get out of the third car and park one of the two stored cars underneath the door so it cannot close.

Drive in the thrid car and you can do the same for cars 4, 5, and 6.
